This Code can be modified/amended/ altered only by Board of Directors of the Company.

But in case of any statutory modification or amendment or alteration of the provisions of Securities and Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading), Regulation 2015, the newly modified/amended/ altered provisions of the Regulation shall be deemed to be implemented in the Code with effect from the date of the statutory notification for modification or amendment or alteration etc.

The amended code shall be placed before the Board of Directors of the Company in the Board Meeting held after the date of statutory notification for modification/ amendment/ alteration etc. of the Regulation for noting.

4. Applicability & Declaration:

- a. The Code is applicable to all Directors / Designated Persons and to the extent specified, to their Immediate Relatives.
- b. All Directors / Designated Persons are advised to carefully go through and familiarize themselves with and adhere to the Code.
- c. In case a Director / Designated Person holds Securities jointly with any other person, related or not, such holding will be considered as the holding of the Director / Designated Person. Accordingly, all the provisions of the Code shall be applicable in totality.
- d. All Directors / Designated Persons are required to confirm their understanding of an agreement to comply with the Code by signing a Declaration in the format prescribed in ‘Annexure A’

5. Role of Compliance Officer:

The Compliance Officer shall report on insider trading to the Board of Directors of the Company and in particular, shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee, if any, or to the Chairman of the Board of Directors on annual basis.

The Compliance Officer shall assist all employees in addressing any clarifications regarding the Securities & Exchange Board of India (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 and the Company's Code of Conduct.

6. Preservation of confidentiality of UPSI / Confidential Information:

- a. All information shall be handled within the Company on a need-to-know basis and no UPSI shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the insider's legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations.
- b. The Company shall however, in no circumstances share information solely for the purpose of evading the compliances of the Regulations or circumventing the prohibitions of these Regulations.
- c. Notwithstanding anything contained in this regulation, an unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:
 - (i) entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the board of directors of the listed company is of informed opinion that sharing such information is in the best interests of the company;
 - (ii) not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the board of directors of the listed company is of informed opinion that sharing such information is in the best interests of the company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the board of directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.

However, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the limited purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

d. Need to Know:

“Need to Know” basis means that Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information. All non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department.

e. Confidential Information / UPSI shall be kept with adequate security. Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password, etc.

f. Digital database of information:

The Board of Directors shall ensure that a structured digital database is maintained containing the nature of unpublished price sensitive information and the names of such persons who have shared the information and also the names of such persons with whom information is shared under this regulation along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available. Such database shall not be outsourced and shall be maintained internally with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database.

The board of directors or head(s) of the organization of every person required to handle unpublished price sensitive information shall ensure that the structured digital database is preserved for a period of not less than eight years after completion of the relevant transactions and in the event of receipt of any information from the Board regarding any investigation or enforcement proceedings, the relevant information in the structured digital database shall be preserved till the completion of such proceedings.

g. Chinese Walls:

To prevent the misuse of UPSI, the Company shall follow the ‘Chinese Wall’ approach and separate those departments which routinely have access to such information, considered as “inside areas” from other departments, considered as “public areas”. Employees in the inside areas shall not be allowed to communicate any UPSI to anyone in the public areas, except as may be required on a need-to-know basis, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations or for Legitimate Purpose in accordance with the Code and the Regulations.

7. Prevention of Misuse of ‘Unpublished Price Sensitive Information’ (UPSI):

Designated Persons and immediate relatives of designated persons in the Company shall be governed by an internal code of conduct governing dealing in securities.

No insider shall trade in securities of the Company on a stock exchange when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

8. Trading Plan:

1. An insider shall be entitled, at his option, to formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out with such plan.

2. Such trading plan shall:
 - a. not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the Insider earlier than one hundred and twenty calendar days from the public disclosure of the plan;
 - b. not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
 - c. set out following parameters for each trade to be executed:
 - i. either the value of trade to be affected or the number of securities to be traded;
 - ii. nature of the trade;
 - iii. either specific date or time period not exceeding five consecutive trading days;
 - iv. price limit, that is an upper price limit for a buy trade and a lower price limit for a sell trade, subject to the range as specified below:
 - for a buy trade: the upper price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent higher than such closing price;
 - for a sell trade: the lower price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent lower than such closing price.
 - d. not entail trading in securities for market abuse.
3. The Compliance Officer shall review such trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of these regulations and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan. Pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan and trading window norms shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.
4. The trading plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan or to deviate from it except due to permanent incapacity or bankruptcy or operation of law

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, any UPSI in possession of the Insider at the time of formulation of the plan has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation.

If the insider has set a price limit for a trade, the insider shall execute the trade only if the execution price of the security is within such limit. If price of the security is outside the price limit set by the insider, the trade shall not be executed.

5. The compliance officer shall approve or reject the trading plan within two trading days of receipt of the trading plan and notify the approved plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed, on the day of approval.

9. Trading Window and Window Closure:

- a. The Compliance Officer shall intimate the closure of trading window to all the designated employees of the Company when he determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates.
- b. However, for Unpublished price sensitive information not emanating from within the Listed Company, trading window may not be closed.
- c. The trading period, i.e. the trading period of the stock exchanges, called 'trading window', is available for trading in the Company's securities.
- d. The trading window shall be made applicable from the end of every quarter till 48 hours after declaration of financial results. The gap between clearance of accounts by audit committee and board meeting should be as narrow as possible and preferably on the same day to avoid leakage of material information

During closure of trading window, Designated Persons (and their immediate relatives) shall not trade in the securities of the Company.

All Designated Persons (and their immediate relatives) shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only in a valid trading window and shall not deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company's securities during the periods when the trading window is closed, as referred above or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.

- e. The trading window restrictions mentioned in sub-clause (1) shall not apply in respect of –
 - (a) transactions specified in clauses (i) to (iv) and (vi) of the proviso to sub- regulation (1) of regulation 4 of Regulations and in respect of a pledge of shares for a Bona fide purpose such as raising of funds, subject to pre-clearance by the compliance officer and compliance with the respective regulations made by the Board;
 - (b) transactions which are undertaken in accordance with respective regulations made by the Board such as acquisition by conversion of warrants or debentures, subscribing to rights issue, further public issue, preferential allotment or tendering of shares in a buy-back offer, open offer, delisting offer or transactions which are undertaken through such other mechanism as may be specified by the Board from time to time.

The timing for re-opening of the trading window shall be determined by the compliance officer taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, which in any event shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available

f. The Compliance Officer, after considering various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re-opening of the trading window, however in any event it shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.

10. Pre-clearance of trades:

- a. When the trading window is open, any Designated Person (and/or their immediate relative) shall trade in Securities of the Company subject to pre-clearance by the Compliance Officer if the value of the securities traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter aggregates to a traded value in excess of Rs. 10 Lakhs (market value) should pre-clear the transaction. However, no Designated Person shall be entitled for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such Designated Person is in possession of UPSI even if the trading window is not closed.
- b. Designated Person (and/or their immediate relative Specified Person) who proposes to execute trade in Securities of the Company shall submit an application duly filled and signed to the Compliance Officer. The format of application is annexed as 'Annexure B'. It is clarified that the designated person should submit the application on behalf of his/her immediate relative(s), for trades proposed to be executed by the immediate relative(s).
- c. Prior to approving any trades, the Compliance Officer shall seek declarations to the effect that the applicant for pre-clearance is not in possession of any UPSI. He shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.
- d. The Compliance Officer shall approve / reject pre-clearance application within four trading days in 'Annexure C'.
- e. Designated Person shall execute pre-cleared trade within seven trading days from approval and shall report his trade details to Compliance Officer in 'Annexure D' within two trading days from the trade. In case non-trading, Designated Person shall report his decision of non-trading along with reasons to Compliance Officer in 'Annexure D'.
- f. In case of failure in executing trade within seven trading days, Designated Person shall be required to take fresh pre-clearance for the trades to be executed in 'Annexure B'.
- g. Designated Person who is permitted to trade shall not execute a contra trade within next six months from previous transaction. The Compliance Officer may grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing without violating the Regulations. If contra trade is executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Securities and Exchange Board of India for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund.

11. Disclosure by Certain Persons:

a. Initial Disclosure:

Every person on appointment as key managerial personnel or a director of the Company or upon becoming a promoter or member of the promoter group shall disclose his holding of Securities as on the date of appointment or becoming a promoter, to the Company within seven days of such appointment or becoming a promoter.

b. Continual Disclosure:

Every promoter, member of the promoter group, designated person and director of the Company shall disclose to the Company the number of such Securities acquired or disposed of within two trading days of such transaction if the value of the Securities traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of Rs.10 lakhs rupees.

The company shall notify the particulars of such trading to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within two working days of receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

c. Annual Disclosure:

Every promoter, director and Designated Person of the Company shall provide the annual disclosure to the company wherein they shall disclose their holding of Securities on annual basis within 60 days from conclusion of every financial year of the Company.

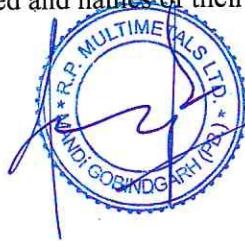

d. Other Disclosures:

Designated persons shall be required to disclose names and Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law of the following persons to the Company on an annual basis and as and when the information changes:

- a) Immediate Relatives
- b) Persons whom such designated person(s) shares a material financial relationship; and
- c) Phone, mobile and cell numbers which are used by them

The term "material financial relationship" shall mean a relationship in which one person is a recipient of any kind of payment such as by way of a loan or gift from a designated person during the immediately preceding twelve months, equivalent to at least 25% of the annual income of such designated person but shall exclude relationships in which the payment is based on arm's length transactions.

Designated persons shall also disclose on a one time basis the names of educational institutions from which designated persons have graduated and names of their past employers.

12. Process for how and when People are brought 'Inside' on Sensitive transactions:

The Compliance Officer in consultation with WTD of the Company shall decide on how and when any person(s) should be brought 'inside' on any proposed or ongoing sensitive transaction(s). The Compliance Officer (along with WTD) shall consider whether such person being wall – crossed, is being provided UPSI on a need – to – know basis. Further, information shared with such wall – crosser should be limited to the specific transaction or purpose for which their assistance is required.

Additionally, a person(s) may also be brought inside on any proposed or ongoing sensitive transaction(s) of the Company who may be an existing or proposed partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, insolvency professionals or other advisors or consultants etc. for legitimate purpose which shall include the following;

- a. in the ordinary course of business
- b. in furtherance of performance of duty(ies);
- c. for discharge of legal obligation(s).
- d. for any other genuine or reasonable purpose as may be determined by the Compliance Officer of the Company.
- e. for any other purpose as may be prescribed under the Securities Regulations or Company Law or any other law for the time being in force, in this behalf, as may be amended from time to time.

13. Intimation of Duties and Responsibilities and the liability to the Person(s) who has/have been brought inside' on Sensitive Transaction(s).

Any person(s) who has/have been brought inside on any proposed and/or ongoing sensitive transaction(s) and in receipt of unpublished price sensitive information shall be considered an 'insider' for purposes of this Code and due notice shall be given to such persons, in the format as set out in by the Compliance Officer in consultation with WTD and/or CFO of the Company;

- a. To make such person aware that the information shared is or would be confidential.
- b. To instruct such person to maintain confidentiality of such unpublished price sensitive information in compliance with these regulations.
- c. To make such person aware of the duties and responsibilities attached to the receipt of such information and the liability attached to misuse or unwarranted use of such information.

14. Penalty:

Any Designated Person who contravenes the Code of Conduct shall be penalised and shall also be subject to disciplinary action by the Company, which may include wage freeze, suspension, recovery, clawback etc. The Company shall promptly inform Securities and Exchange Board of India regarding any violation of the Code of Conduct.
